Sixth Annual SCC Arts Exhibition Set

Grand Opening is Tuesday, April 22 at 5:30 p.m. at Creative Arts Workshop in New Haven

The sixth annual SCC Student Arts Exhibition will be held the week of April 21-26 at the Creative Arts Workshop in downtown New Haven. The exhibition will feature 60+ selections of outstanding student-originated visual arts in a variety of media. Each SCC member school has the opportunity to submit up to three works.

A grand opening of the show with refreshments and award presentations will be held on Tuesday, April 22 starting at 5:30 p.m. Prizes will be awarded by a jury of professional artists and arts administrators coordinated through CAW Executive Director Susan Smith.

“Once again, thanks to Susan Smith and her staff at the Creative Arts Workshop for hosting the SCC Arts Exhibition,” SCC Commissioner Al Carbone commented. “New Haven is indeed the ‘creative arts capitol’ of Connecticut,’ so it’s an honor to have such a first-class venue to show off our students’ great work.”

The Creative Arts Workshop is located at 80 Audubon Street in New Haven. Gallery hours are Monday through Friday, 9:30 to 5:30 and Saturday, 9:00 to 12 noon. For more information or directions, go to www.creativeartsworkshop.org.

About the SCC: The 2007-08 academic year marks the 14th year of existence for the Southern Connecticut Conference. The SCC is comprised of 23 high schools with over 23,000 students representing 17 communities. Recognized as one of the best athletic conferences in the state, the SCC also has a great tradition of offering first-rate non-athletic programs and events that enrich the overall high school experience of our young people to help them become responsible students, athletes and citizens.
